

The diagram shows a pattern for a skirt with a flared, rounded hem. It consists of two concentric lines forming the skirt's shape. The outer line is a solid black line, and the inner line is a solid gray line. At the top center, there is a small black triangle pointing downwards. On the left and right sides, there are two pairs of black triangles pointing towards each other, indicating where to fold or sew the waistband.

Blossom Skirt

Cut 4